ROLE OF BONE BIOPSY IN CLINICAL PRACTICE

LEUVEN BELGIUM JANUARY, 19th 2018

Program:

11:00-11:10: welcome and introduction
(P Evenepoel, Leuven, Belgium)

11:10-11:55: How to assess bone health in CKD?
(T Nickolas, NY, USA)

11:55-12:15: Bone biopsy: prejudices and true limitations
(AK Ferreira, Lisbon, Portugal)

12:15-12:50: Qualitative and/or quantitative bone histomorphometry
(P. D’Haese, Antwerp, Belgium)

12:50-14:00: sandwich lunch

14:00-14:15: Implementing bone biopsies in daily clinical practice:
the Lariboisière Hospital experience
(PU Torres, Paris, France)

14:15-16:00: clinical cases (interactive session with voting system):
diagnostic and therapeutic approach to a
1. Renal transplant candidate with secondary hyperparathyroidism
   (discussant P Evenepoel, Leuven, Belgium)

2. CKD stage 5D patient with low trauma fracture
   (discussant M Haarhaus, Stockholm, Sweden)

3. Renal transplant patient with hypercalcemia
   (discussant M Cohen-Solal, Paris, France)

16:00 – 17:30: Network meeting
17:30: adjourn