

ERA-EDTA & ISN-GO CME Course

“CURRENT TENDENCIES IN THE THERAPY OF GLOMERULONEPHRITIS AND CHRONIC KIDNEY DISEASE“

29th June 2013, Varna, Bulgaria

8:00 – 8:30 Registration

8:30 – 8:45 Welcome address
Goce Spasovski (ERA-EDTA CME Committee), Raymond Vanholder (ERA-EDTA President), John Feehally (ISN President), Valentin Ikonov (Head Coordinator of the Organizing Committee)

8:45 – 9:15 Primary glomerulonephritis: What is new?
Jürgen Flöge, Germany

9:15 – 9:45 An update in treatment in secondary GN
John Feehally, Great Britain

9:45 – 10:15 Apheresis and immunoabsorption: Current tendency
Valentin Ikonov, Bulgaria

10:15 – 10:45 Coffee break

10:45 – 11:15 Chronic kidney disease as a cardiovascular risk equivalent
Carmine Zoccali, Italy

11:15 – 11:45 When to start dialysis in chronic kidney disease
Raymond Vanholder, Belgium

11:45 – 12:15 Clinical trials in dialysis: What have we learn up today?
Francesco Locatelli, Italy

12:15 – 12:45 Peritoneal dialysis: An update
Wim Van Biesen, Belgium

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 – 14:15 How to improve kidney transplantation in SEEHN countries
Goce Spasovski, Macedonia

14:15 – 14:45 Renal transplantation: New developments
Bruno Watschinger, Austria

14:45 – 15:15 Recent advances in vascular calcification management
Ziad Massy, France

15:15 – 16:00 Meet the Expert